When a Roof Leak Strikes, Who Should You Trust?

You hear it during a storm — the dreaded drip... drip... drip. Whether it's a slow leak staining your ceiling or water pouring into your home, one thing's for sure: you need help fast. But who should you call? A handyman? Your cousin with a ladder? Or a certified roofer? If you're in Salt Lake City or nearby communities and dealing with a leaking roof, you're not alone — and this post will show you exactly what to do and who to trust. We'll break down your options, what to avoid, and why getting it right the first time saves you time, money, and headaches.

Choose the Right Expert for the Job

The best person to fix a leaking roof? A licensed, insured, certified roofing contractor — full stop.

Here's why a pro roofer is the only smart choice:

1. They know roofing systems inside out
2. They carry the right tools and materials for long-term fixes
3. They provide warrantied work that protects your home value

Avoid:

1. Handymen: often lack roofing-specific training
2. DIY: dangerous, temporary, and often ends up costing more
3. General contractors: may subcontract to unknown crews

At Go Pro Roofing, every repair is backed by a 5-Year Workmanship Warranty — with certified, in-house pros, not subcontractors.

Most leaks start small and grow into big problems. Common causes include:

1. Cracked or missing shingles
2. Damaged flashing around chimneys or vents
3. Pooling water on flat or low-slope roofs
4. Clogged gutters are pushing water under the shingles

Utah's freeze-thaw cycles and surprise storms make roofs especially vulnerable. Fixing the leak without addressing the cause? That's just putting a bucket under a waterfall.

How to Tell If Your Roof Is Leaking (Before It's Too Late)

---

Recognizing the early signs of a roof leak can prevent major damage. Watch for:

1. Water stains on ceilings or walls
2. Mold or mildew smell in attic or walls
3. Shingle granules accumulating in gutters
4. Sagging ceilings or bubbling paint
5. Rusted nails or metal flashing in roof areas

The sooner you act, the easier (and cheaper) the fix will be. Don't wait for the storm to hit before taking action.

DIY Roof Leak Repair vs. Hiring a Professional

Thinking about fixing your roof leak yourself? Here's a comparison to help you decide:

For peace of mind and protection, a certified roofer is always the safer bet.

Understanding the Cost of Roof Leak Repairs

---

While costs vary, here's a ballpark:

1. Minor shingle replacement: $150–$400
2. Flashing/sealant repair: $250–$600
3. Larger leak with structural damage: $800–$2,500+

Good news: Go Pro Roofing offers promotional repair and replacement packages with savings of $500–$2,000. Additionally, we accept Zelle, PayPal, Apple Pay, and credit cards for flexible payment options.

What Homeowners Are Saying

Many homeowners mention Driftwood and Estate Gray as top picks for blending style and practicality. Roofers have also noticed a rise in demand for Pacific Wave and Teak due to their unique visual appeal.

Really appreciated the thorough explanation of my existing roof and the things taken into consideration during the replacement. They took tons of photos before/during/after that were shared with me on a Google link which made it easy to share with my insurance company. My roof took one day which was glorious! I had gotten a few bids and they were not the cheapest but somewhere in the middle, the difference was the quality of things like drip edge, flashing addressing old pipes. None of the other companies even talked about that stuff so costing a little more (wasn't a lot) was totally worth it. They even removed my old swamp cooler. My garage is detached so we didn't do it at the same time, when I do I'll definitely use them again.

Exceptional experience with this company from beginning to end of the process, which is unfortunately very rare these days. Showed up on time and did excellent work. Pointed out items that other companies who bid the job missed, and didn't try to add them on simply to charge me more. This company is experienced, affordable and does beautiful work. Highly recommended in every way.

Fast and thorough repair. Fast responses to questions. They fixed a problem covered up by another company.

Jose was quick, efficient for the work he did. Also he was respectful of the plants he had to reach over to complete the job. And he cleaned everything up afterwards. Loved it and would recommend him to any and all who need work done!!!

Jose and the crew were professional and efficient and I would highly recommend them!

We had Jose from Go Pro Roofing come out to give us a bid on doing Leaf Gutters. He sent me a bid which was very reasonable and we booked our appt for May 2024. He cleaned out the gutters before installing the gutters and took pictures of everything before, after and during the install. He showed up when he said he would and cleaned up after. He did a very professional job.

It's unfortunate roofs don't need to be replaced often, I would use Jose and his crew every time and refer them to everyone I know without hesitation. Jose took time to teach, explain, and answer questions. Throughout the process, and even with random things after, Jose went above and beyond. They were fast, clean, and thorough - even the neighbors commented on the speed and attention to detail. Good character, competitive pricing, fantastic work.
